

Sach's response of 10/2, in full: "Thank you for your letter of September 18, and your expression of concern for Mr. Hunt, which I have relayed to him." I find it most interesting that he doesn't say "Mr. Hunt says to tell you that he has no recollection of your paths every crossing. Lesar has not been able to get a copy of his opening statement from anyone. Not even a callback from Sachs' office. I asked him to walk in and ask for it. If he doesn't get it, I'll suggest that he ask Bud to ask for it as McC's lawyer. However, that won't yield what he blurted out about domestic intelligence. Ervin committee hold back not only exhibits. The third volume is out now. A member of Mac's staff is going to pick them up and mail. I phoned today to tell me they still won't give exhibits and Library Congress confirms my version Times, Post stories with copies provided. Committee says makes no difference. Do you 'spose they know me, somehow? HW 10/4/73
