

While awaiting the McDonalds, who were a little late getting here yesterday, I started reading around in Ramparts Press' Big Brother and the Holding Company. From the names I expected some of it to be terrible. I was disappointed not to be disappointed and laid it aside. There may be good stuff in it too but what I skimmed is wrongheaded and sick. Also grossly inaccurate on simple and well-known fact.

Goulden's piece on the new flackery interested me. I've kept it in case you want. Forgot to mark this on carbon. He deals almost entirely with H & K. And Rose Mary Woods' friend Gray. HW 12/2/74
