UCLA Violence Study, alleged CIA control LEAA (Justice ain't bad enough?): listened to tape tonight. Thanks. Frightening. The reference to use of drugs in Md. is to Montgomery County. I think they used phenobarb on the over-active kids. Quite a controversy several years ago but relatively quiet since. For whatever it may be worth, that county's police dept. is one that got CIA training. I got a description of one thing used in the course that breaks up the official explanation: Zapruder film! Basically these people are right about LEAA. It has been up to much anti-democratic stuff. I did see two stories on that New York de-programming deal. They did not make sense. Nor does the assassination of the leader of so insignificant a group. The CIA does seem to have considerable interest in the psychological, as to a lesser degree OSS also did. Think Lesar may be interested. I'll let him have cassette when I see him Tuesday... Caught up on all clips sent plus today's WxPost and NYTimes while awaiting "til the Overtimer and after supper... That Moorer-Kissinger bit is a monstrosity if it is only what has been alleged. It may well be more and worse... y memory isn't what it used to be but I am clear on my stunned reaction on hearing all those exclusives on early a.m. news, beginning somewhere around 4- 4:30 a.m. Only DOD or WH could do this delicate orchestrating. DOD fumbling seems to eliminate it... Did GL want to "prove" that there was this big national-security deal? Well, I can't see any security breach. Selling secrets, yeah. But only those with highest classifications saw. None of the accounts say who did the tapping. Today's Post says there were these other FBI taps. Still gaps and areas doubts... Hoppe his usual great. Gives a lift... Story on the Nixon "gift" San C cute. The escape hatches are more visible since the coining of the new meaning for "inoperative." The sole claim is that no short-term deduction will be taken in 1974 (only). "il is too busy to ask her, but I would imagine he could refile or income-average later. That is, IF he does it. If his lawyers haven't had time to draft a simple contract or deed, his intentions are "perfectly clear." HW 1/25/74
