

Dear Jim, heard appeals decision vs KPFK mgr yesterday. Fear inevitable without more daring, imaginative defense that had to be an attack on FBI and its needs and motives. With record on both. No word from them here...Progress (?) report: JL has finished his legal analysis and is to have retyped, read and corrected by Tuesday, when I have to be in DC and can pick it up. Lil probably finished retyping my part last night. I went to bed before she did. (Increasingly I find the uninterrupted early hours more productive.) PH seems to be censoring, not replacing some of ripped-off documents so I'll go ahead without them...Getting closer to end The Unimpeachment. Draft, that is. It still tells an untold story, after the House output (which I've not yet been able to get) Working on the Baker report now when I had to stop yesterday. Should finish today before afternoon interruption...JL filed an inch of discovery motions since he was here, or including carbons he forgot last time. Ray case. We have been discussing this regularly and are in accord. (I make it a point not to read any where there may not be the likelihood of followups but where I think he may not see subtleties or miss angles I do so he can refile. He is doing very well, particularly for an inexperienced lawyer. The state will be climbing the wall. Jim has come to my thinking, I think, that he can educate the judge this way. It appears to him now that they'll be using me as a witness on more than originally expected, particularly if the State does not produce Frank, Huie, McMillan...Livingston wants me to do more Memphis investigation. I've agreed with him to do it next month when there is a conference with the State and judge if I can go a couple of days early but I'm not anxious and making no issue having heard no word from Bud, who just came back from another expensive futility, expecting to get the missing part of the Bremer diary through father. Two-man trip he paid for. He has an unerring instinct for spending money in ways that can't yield a return. Best, HW 7/24/74
