

JDM - Dave Wrone phoned last night and we wound up with 4 phones reducing the volume but through it what was so very clear is their emotion as well as appreciation over your plans for your father's violins. They are deeply touched over this, perhaps more than they have reflected to you, which is why I write. It is so very much more than what today would be important, the cost of replacing the kids' violins. They also hope very much that you can make the visit of which you wrote and that we can get there at the same time. That would be great if it can be arranged!
